Subject: RE: Cover art for manuscript submission?

Thanks Ande,

They are going to give me laptop today and I will work from home. It is very scary time and I hope this will end soon.

Have a nice day.

Haile

Haile,

It would be great to get this published with your work as the cover art. That would be very nice.

I'm working remotely Ex. 6 Personal Privacy (PP) and I do have my own laptop, so I'm actually able to be pretty productive.

I miss coming in to work a lot and look forward to when we can eventually return. But I don't think that is likely to happen very soon.

The impact of the virus seems to be getting bigger every day. We need to practice social distancing despite what our leaders are telling us now.

Take care of your family and thank you for all of your great work!

Andy

Thanks Ande,

I hope John will give me his feedback on the draft maps to improve the quality. Are you enjoying working from home? I am still waiting for a laptop to work from home.

Best,

Haile

Thanks Haile,

I'm not sure what he's looking for, but that looks good to me.

Take care,

Andy

Hi John,

I have attached draft maps for your review.

Thanks,

Haile

Hi Haile,

Please disregard my request. The graphics guy finally replied to my email of last Tuesday or Wednesday, indicating he would try to do the cover art. I don't know why it has been difficult to get a reply from him. Please let me know if you have started and/or been put out by my request of earlier this morning.

Thanks and Sorry!
John

Subject: Cover art for manuscript submission?

Hi Haile,

We have an opportunity to submit a proposal for coverart for the Science journal manuscript. The ORD graphics contractor evidently is not available to try to develop suggested coverart. I was wondering if you might have the time and inclination to try to do so.

If you are game to try, I am very flexible and open to ideas from you Drew or Andy. As a starting point, I had suggested an idea to you in the past that I will copy below and I suggested another idea to the graphics contractor (who cannot help us at this point). I will paste these below to remind you and as straw men.

If you are too busy to try, no harm no foul, but I thought I'd ask.

Thanks,
John

Subject: Need figure in stand-alone PDF format for resubmission

Hi Haile,

For our Science resubmission, we need to submit manuscript figures as separate PDF, TIFF or EPS files. Unless it is a problem for you, I prefer PDF. Would you please send me your CIPFPECA map that I copy below as a stand-alone in PDF format? (The editor told me to move the {{C9+C11}}-(C10+C12)} to the Supplementary Material, so we don't need this in stand-alone PDF.)

Also, I have a second ambitious request of you. So far as I can tell, Science does not ask for potential cover art, but if not too hard for you, how about if we try a cover-art submission? If you are up for it, how about trying this for cover art (I am open to other ideas!):

What do you think? Can you try my second request without too much trouble??? And please send the map as soon as you have it in a stand-alone PDF.

Thanks,
John
